The World-wide Famous Instant Noodle

Have you heard about Indomie? Surely you've heard of the famous noodle brand from Indonesia. Indomie has more than six flavors and it can also serve in fried or soup. This dish is very popular not only in Indonesia but also worldwide. The one which is everyone's favorite is the fried noodle one or in Indonesia we called is as mie goreng. This noodle is rather easy to cook because you just need to heat the water, put the noodle inside and wait for several minutes, after that pour it to your plate with all the seasonings and it's ready to eat. The seasonings are mild tasted but you can add hot sauce that comes with it to suit your preference. As an Indonesian we can enjoy it occasionally but it will be tastier if you eat it when it's warm.
